THINGS IN OLD MADISON

The Populists Have Put a Full County Ticket in the Field.

MINING NEWS AND GOSSIP

Side Gulches Emptying Into the Famous Alder Developing Good Pay-Jolly Parties Going to the Park.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

VIRGINIA CITY, Aug. 10.—The Madison county populists held their convention last Saturday, and nominated a full county ticket. There was a good attendance of representative men, and it is generally conceded that they have placed—if not a winning ticket—at least a strong one in candidacy.

For president D. W. Thompson of Sheridan was chosen, and for secretaries F. W. McFarland of Madison Valley and Edgar Birchard of Twin Bridges.

The committee on resolutions made its report, which, after considerable discussion and amendments, was finally adopted as follows:

WHEREAS, The country has been brought to its present condition by legislation enacted by both the republican and democratic parties in congress, and the people's party has been formed to overthrow those two parties and pass laws that will better the condition of all who are engaged in productive enterprise; and

WHEREAS, Our party has in some localities adopted the unwise and suicidal policy of fusing with one or the other of the old parties and thereby surrendering in part our principles of reform; and

WHEREAS, There are three political parties in the United States, one being the people's party and Grover Cleveland the other two, and as we don't propose to endorse any of its plots to enslave the free and independent people of the United States, therefore be it

Resolved, By this convention of people's party of Madison county, assembled at Virginia City, Mont., Aug. 10, 1904, that said people's party shall keep in the middle of the road, and enter into no fusion with either of the old parties, for it is impossible to mix muddy water with clear water without making it all muddy.

Resolved, That we endorse the state platform as adopted by the people's party at Deer Lodge, June 25, 1904.

Following are the nominations: For state senator, C. W. Birchard, Twin Bridges; for representatives, D. W. Thompson, Sheridan, and Solomon Viles, Virginia City; sheriff, S. D. Mollineux, Sheridan; clerk and recorder, Charles Simpson, Virginia City; treasurer, Marion Baker, Virginia City; assessor, Phil McGovern, Adobetown; superintendent of schools, F. W. McFarland, Madison valley; county commissioners, Martin Peel, Madison valley, William Troselle, Twin Bridges, and W. C. McKaskle, Pony; coroner, M. McLean, Virginia City; assessor, McGovern of Virginia City was elected chairman of the central committee.

The republican central committee of Madison county has met and apportioned the county into primary precincts. They have added eight precincts with nine delegates to the last apportionment, so they will make an imposing display, at least, in the county convention. The primaries are called for Aug. 25 and the convention will meet on Sept. 1.

Alex Metzel, one of the representatives from Madison county in the legislature, met with an accident a day or two ago which threatens serious results. He was riding with his three sisters over his ranch on upper Ruby valley, and when crossing a ditch was thrown from the wagon. Falling heavily on his side, his collar bone was fractured and two ribs were crushed in. The attending surgeon, Dr. Ragan, thinks that he has also sustained severe internal injuries, but to what extent cannot at present be determined.

While the funeral procession of Thomas Lynch's child was passing through the city, the horse of John Almour was scared by a runaway dog, and turning suddenly, crumpled the buggy, throwing Mr. Almour out and bruising him severely. Then, turning down the hill, the carriage, containing Mrs. Almour and Mr. Lynch's youngest child, was upset, and the lady and baby were completely covered up by the overturned vehicle. To the surprise of every body who witnessed the incident, neither Mrs. Almour nor the infant were at all injured by the overthrow.

R. J. Watson of the Butte Hardware company was here two or three days last week visiting his mother, Mrs. E. H. Bartlett. "Dicky" is a Virginia City boy, and is always warmly welcomed when he comes. It may be added that he talked Anaconda for the capital "like a house afire" while here.

Some of the side gulches emptying into Alder gulch are developing good pay. In Hungry Hollow Walter Steger has six-dollar diggings with a very limited supply of water. French, Batchelor, Grayback and several other tributaries to the main gulch also prospect well. There is a fine opportunity here for someone to bring water on these gulches, as that is the one thing needed to make them profitable. Interviewing some of the residents of the neighborhood, the STANDARD correspondent was informed that the enterprise would not require a very large amount of capital to bring water from the Madison river onto all these prospects, and that it would be a "big-paying" project.

Clark W. Kellogg, superintendent of the Kennet mine, reports a strike on the 230-foot level of a three-foot vein of ore which will go 800 per ton. The most encouraging feature is that, while the gold in the upper workings has been light, flakey and hard to save, at this depth it is heavy and easily retained in the battery. Mr. Millard, the Omaha banker who owns the property, is highly elated over the present condition of the mine.

Mining matters in Ramshorn gulch are also progressing finely. In the Mauch Chunk, Harkins & Smith have sunk 100 feet, developing a mammoth mass of ore, estimated to be about 125 feet in width. So far as opened up, the mine has yielded $6 in gold and $11 ounces silver per ton. Outside the lead proper there is three feet of a clayish matter which assays $21 per ton.

The Cecil mine, near by, is running on a six-foot vein, with 24 inches of shipping ore, which will yield from $250 to $300 per ton. The pay streak is widening with depth, as is shown in the stops, at the top of which it is only 18 inches wide, while it gradually extended to 24 inches at the bottom. They have already another carload ready for shipment at Butte. This is considered by mining men hereabouts one of the best gold propositions in the county. I don't know whether it is for sale or not; but, from what I have seen of it, if I owned it I wouldn't sell it "for a song."

Married—At Laurin, by the Rev. Father Paulwyn, on July 31, Robert Funk of Virginia City and Miss Katie Donegan, of Pullen Springs. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for the temporary capital on a wedding tour, from which they returned this morning.

Geysering parties are beginning to realize that the old route via Virginia City is the best one to take after all when going to the National Park. Several companies have passed through here this week on their way to Wonderland.

A party from Helena consisting of Herbert B. Reed and family, E. L. Flaherty and family, R. A. Porter, J. A. Kinsinger, Mr. and Mrs. Marston, the Misses Maud Marsh, Stella Wanta, L. H. Miller and Lillie Treadway, Mrs. P. A. Reid and Capt. Winters came in on their way to the National Park. They were a jolly party, and their only disgust was to find so many of our people talking Anaconda for the capital.

Another geysering party just starting is D. R. Beck, superintendent of the Montana Flaming and Mining company, and his family; Mrs. W. G. Beck of Fairfield, Iowa, Mrs. A. W. Wolday of Des Moines, Iowa, Misses Euphonia Ramsey and Nellie Hughes of Butte, Ralph and Maggie Wynne of Junction, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff of Home Park.

County Treasurer Gilbert also outfitted and started this morning Mrs. Frank Ried of Twin Bridges, the Misses Clara and Sarah Gilbert, Miss Mary Fanning of Beaverhead, and Messrs. Edgar, Birchard and Valentine Gilbert. They have gone fully armed and equipped for the vicissitudes of life in the National park.

Miss Maggie Wynne of Hazel Green, Wis., arrived here this evening and will spend the fall with Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wynne of Junction.

The "King's Daughters" of Virginia City gave a lawn party this evening for the purpose of aiding the effort to convey water to the Virginia City cemetery. It was given at the residence of the Hon. Wm. Morris and netted over $100 for a most worthy and necessary object.

Miss Rita Hickman, who has been visiting here for several weeks, returned to Helena Saturday. It is regretfully learned here that her father, Hon. R. O. Hickman, is not progressing so favorably as has been reported, a cancerous tumor having made its appearance near the point of amputation.

Miss Mary McGovern of Adobetown left on the 4th inst. to visit relatives in Butte and Anaconda.

Major N. J. Ideol of Pony was a visitor to the ancient capital this week.

The great musical event of the season will occur at Armory Hall on Saturday evening, the occasion being a benefit concert for the Independent Cornet band. All the reserved seats have already been sold and the house will be crowded to its utmost capacity as the boys are very popular. Being all good musicians, it goes without saying that the programme will be an interesting one.

Company D, M. N. G., will start on Sunday for the annual encampment at Fort Ellis. This company has maintained a high standard both for drill and marksmanship ever since the organization of the regiment, and Captain Reif is confident that it will maintain its reputation for efficiency in both this year.

Mrs. Ellen Garvey, one of the most popular teachers in Madison county, trotted out her pupils in a most delightful entertainment at Laurin last Friday. The programme was, of course, of the usual sort for such occasions, but the selections were more than usually good. Piquancy was added to the event by some excellent music, rendered by Mesdames Dupuis and Arsenau, and a pleasant dance after the entertainment.

S. R. Buford and R. T. Cook leave for Anaconda Sunday. They are the Virginia City delegates to the grand lodge of the A. O. U. W.
